Gift Aid

If you are a UK taxpayer your gift can be made tax efficient through the Government's Gift Aid scheme. All gifts, of whatever value, are eligible for tax relief as long as the Gift Aid Declaration is signed and returned with your donation.

I am a UK taxpayer. I would like The Foundation/University of Cambridge to treat as Gift Aid donations, this, all future donations and any previous donations applicable within HM Revenue and Customs time limits until I notify you otherwise.

Notes:

1. You must pay an amount of income tax and/ or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that The Cambridge Foundation reclaims on your donations in the tax year.
2. You can cancel the declaration at any time by notifying The Cambridge Foundation.
3. If in the future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that The Cambridge Foundation reclaims, you can cancel your declaration (see note 1).
4. If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self-Assessment tax return.
5. If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, please contact The Cambridge Foundation or visit the HM Revenue & Customs website www.hmrc.gov.uk/charity
6. Please notify The Cambridge Foundation if you change your name or address while the declaration is still in force

Please send me details On Bequests On how to claim higher rate tax relief on my donation

I would like this donation to remain anonymous I do not pay UK income or capital gains tax

The University of Cambridge established The Cambridge Foundation in 1989 to support the University's development plans. The Foundation administers donations on behalf of the University (HM Revenue & Customs ref. no. XN81946)
